Qingming Festival

清明节

Qingming Festival, also known as Tomb-Sweeping Day, is one of China's most time-honoured traditional festivals. Uniquely, it serves both as an important solar term of the 24 solar terms and a grand folk cultural occasion. It usually falls between April 4th and 6th. At this time, winter fades away, temperatures rise steadily and all things revive, which explains the name "Qingming", meaning clear and bright.

The festival dates back to ancient spring sacrificial rituals of the Zhou Dynasty, gradually absorbing customs from the Cold-Food Festival and the Shangsi Festival. After thousands of years, it has grown into a comprehensive festival combining ancestor remembrance and spring celebration, carrying two contrasting atmospheres: solemn grief for the departed and lively joy for the arrival of spring.

Tomb-sweeping and ancestor worship form its core custom. During the festival, families travel to tombs of their deceased relatives, clearing weeds, tidying tombs and laying out offerings. These rituals express mourning for the dead and gratitude for ancestors, reflecting the national values of honouring filial piety and passing down family spirits.

Apart from serious memorial ceremonies, Qingming is also a season to embrace spring. People go on spring outings, plant willow branches for blessings and fly kites to let misfortunes fly away with the wind. Green rice cakes, or Qingtuan, made of wormwood juice and glutinous rice flour, are the special seasonal food. In modern China, Qingming remains a statutory public holiday, cherishing the past while embracing a promising future.

清明节是中国历史最为悠久的传统节日之一，既是二十四节气之一，也是盛大的民俗节日，一般在公历4月4日至6日。此时冬天逝去，气温回升，草木返青，万物复苏，“清明”意为洁净明朗。

清明节成型于周代，融合了寒食节与上巳节的习俗，经过数千年发展，成为集追思祖先与迎春游乐为一体的综合性节日，兼具对逝者肃穆的哀思与迎接春天的鲜活喜悦。扫墓祭祖是其核心习俗，各家清除杂草、修整坟茔、摆放供品，寄托对先人的哀思与感恩，体现饮水思源、恪守孝道的价值理念。

除去庄重的祭祀，清明也是拥抱春日的时节。人们踏青郊游、插柳祈福、放风筝，让灾祸与烦恼随风飘远。青团是专属时令美食，由艾草汁混合糯米粉制成，包入甜口或咸口馅料，带着草木独有的春日清香。

在文化层面，清明展现出中国人独有的生死观：缅怀逝者而不沉溺悲伤，追忆先人更要珍惜当下。如今清明仍是法定节假日，人们祭奠祖先、缅怀先烈、欣赏春景，是深深烙印在中国人心中珍贵的文化遗产

美文鉴赏

Love Yourself First, Then Love OthersI firmly believe loving yoursef is the startig point of all love. Only when you learn to embrace yourself can you truly warmothers. Once always put others first, catering to the world and setting aside my own feelings, only to lose my true self in exhaustion and give love with reluctance. Later I realized that those who fail to love themselves can only offer incomplete love-like an empty cup, unable to pour out any tenderness for others.Loving yourself is accepting your imperfection, allowing yourself to feel down and vulnerable, and huggingyourself through low times. It iscaring for your emotions, freeing yourself from overthinking and self-criticism, and living a relaxed life at your own pace, growing steadily into a person who shines from within. When I learned to love myself deeply, my heart was filled with streng. 爱己 为本，而 后爱人

我始终相信，爱自己是一切爱的起点，唯有先学会拥抱自己，才有能力温暖他人。从前总想着 迁就别人、迎合周遭，把自己的感受放在最后，到头来却在疲惫中弄丢了本心，连付出的爱都 带着勉强的底色。后来才慢慢明白，不懂爱己的人，给出的爱往往是残缺的，就像一杯空了的 水杯，无法为别人斟满温柔。爱自己，是接纳不完美的自己，允许自己有失意和脆弱，也懂得 在低谷时给自己拥抱；是照顾好自己的情绪，不内耗、不苛责，把日子过得舒展自在；是守住自己的节奏，不慌不忙地成长，成为一个自带光芒的人。当我学会好好爱自己，内心便有了丰盈 的力量，这份力量让我在爱人时，不再是一味付出，而是带着平等的尊重、真诚的理解，是锦上添花的陪伴，而非倾尽所有的讨好。先爱己，而后爱人，不是自私，而是对自己和他人的负责。唯有内心繁花似锦，才能将花香赠予旁人，让爱成为一场双向的奔赴，温柔且坚定。
